Neither the mental or the moral world has added a single principle to what they had at the dawn of time. Black was never white even in that far distant time when things were mostly black. The principles of harmeny underlying music have not changed since Jubal, though he was making music on the reed. The sons of Asaph and Beethoven bowed to the same laws. Back in ancient Greece old Archamedes was trying to prove with lever and Back in ancient Greece old Archimedes was trying to prove with lever and fulcrum about the same thing that boys now do in Yale and Harvard. Schools and celleges are still using the theorems of Euclid and Euclid is quite venerable. Enough can be said along this line to show that in a sense is is true that "there is nothing new under the sun."

Ladies' Benevolent Society Holds Rum-

The Ladies' Benevolent society of the Taftville Congregational church held a rummage sale Wednesday afternoon and early evening in the Ponemah hall. The ladies had on sale almost anything imaginable from necessary clothing, including hats, coats, shoes, shirtwaists, skirts, etc., to dolls' bonnets and vases. The sale was well natronized and the pronounced advance has been in the line of enlargement of the scope of the department, in an endeavor to do a bit more than work of diagnosis. The detailed report may be seen in the superintendent's office.

Dr. W. Tyler Browne reports from Sept. 30, 1914, to Sept. 30, 1915, there have been 30 patients referred to this department, of whom 63 plates have been made. Among these there were: Fractures 15, dislocations 4, silver 1, club foot 1, kidney stone 1, bullets 2, hip ankylasis 1, undermined 5; total 30.

Mrs. Joseph Langlois, With relatives and friends in attend ance, the funeral of Mrs. Joseph Langlois was held from her late home on South Slater avenue Wednesday morning. Rev. P. L.
